Volume 29 Numbers 1-2 Summer-Winter 1999

East European Jewish Affairs

Contents

Letter to Readers 3

ARTICLES

Antisemitism in Petrograd/Leningrad, 1917-1930
Michael Beizer 5

New Perspectives on Jewish Emigration from Soviet Ukraine
Motya Chlenov 29

From Shtetl to the City of the Sun Calling at the Schools of Communism: Yiddish in Soviet Ukrainian Trade Unions of the 1920s
Gennady Estraikh 51

Ilya Ehrenburg and the Holocaust in Byelorussia
Leonid Smilovitsky 61

The Troubling Past: The Polish Collective Memory of the Holocaust
Joanna Michnic-Coren 75

Bełżec: A Reassessment of the Number of Victims
Robin O'Neil 85

Mark Zborowski, the Spy Who Came Out of the Shtetl
Frank Fox 119

A Note on the Invocation of Russian Classics in the Present-day Nationalist and Philosemitic Russian Press
Henrietta Mondry 129

Moysey Beregovsky, Encyclopaedist of Jewish Folk Music in Russia
Ernst Zaltsberg 141

CONFERENCE NOTE
Jewish Culture for the Twenty-First Century: An International Seminar
Lena Stanley-Clamp 147

REVIEW ARTICLES
The Pale of Settlement: An Inseparable Part of Byelorussian History
Leonid Smilovitsky 151

Soviet Antisemitism after Stalin
Andreas Umland 159

REVIEWS
Beyond Hitler's Grasp
Michael Bar-Zohar, Beyond Hitler's Grasp: The Heroic Rescue of Bulgaria's Jews—Avner Kalev 169

Russian Jews Abroad
M. Parkhomovsky (comp.), Evrei v kulture zarubezhnoy Rossii: Statii, publikatsii, vospominaniya, ocherki—Ernst Zaltsberg 171

Learning the Lessons of the Past
Istvan Pogany, Righting Wrongs in Eastern Europe—Stephen Wheatley 172

BOOKS RECEIVED 175

CONTRIBUTORS 178